

Terms and Conditions for DBT Practitioner Training

Payment should be received at the latest two weeks before the course commences.

Conditions of enrolment

All training and exams are conducted in English.

Videos made in training may be used in other training and publicity contexts.

Course material is provided by and owned by GreenWood Mentors Ltd and protected by copyright.

Participants must inform the trainer of any condition which may affect their ability to undertake the course.

If a participant cannot attend they must let the trainer know asap. Non-attendance may affect ability to complete the training.

GreenWood Mentors reserves the right to cancel or re-schedule all courses.

Client confidentiality should be respected, names and details changed to anonymise case discussion.

Access to confidential client data may be necessary for participation in Skills Training, participants are required to comply with GDPR in the UK and other data protection laws in other countries.

Refunds

Once a payment has been received, after a cooling-off period of two working days, you will receive access to DBT training resources.

Course fees are non-refundable unless in the case of cancellation.

Course participation

GreenWood Mentors reserves the right to refuse an application without reason.

GreenWood Mentors reserves the right to remove from the training any participant who is deemed to be disruptive to the class.

